Comprehensive Assessment

with

Dr. Sam Goldstein, PhD, NCSP

Sam Goldstein, PhD, is the Assistant Clinical Professor of Psychiatry at the University of Utah and Affiliate Research Professor of Psychology at George Mason University. He is a clinical neuropsychologist and nationally certified school psychologist. Dr. Goldstein is Editor in Chief of the Journal of Attention Disorders and is on the editorial boards of six journals. His publications include 26 texts, numerous book chapters, and peer-reviewed research articles. With Jack A. Naglieri, PhD, he is the author of the Autism Spectrum Rating Scales.

Who: This two-day workshop is for anybody that is involved in the evaluation process for special education services. It is geared towards special education teachers, school psychologists, related service providers, school program coordinators, and school administrators.

Where: Virginian Lodge in Jackson, WY
Room rates are $90.00. Please reserve rooms by July 15th, 2011 to ensure this rate.
Telephone number for Virginian: 1-307-733-2792

What: This year's topic is Comprehensive Assessment. A psycho-educational assessment is more than the simple application of a diagnostic criterion to a student. The eligibility to receive special education and related services, and the placement of a student in a special education program are major life changing decisions for that student. Dr. Goldstein will cover assessment in relation to Autism, Learning Disabilities, Mood and Anxiety Disorders, and neuropsychological processes. MHS and PAR vendor tables will be available.
